VOL. XXXI.---NO 37. THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 8, 1888. FIVE CENTS.

COUNTY RETURNS.

The Result as Far as Counted.

SUMMARY OF THE VOTES.

The Plurality of the Republicans.

BALLOTS THROWN OUT.

Field Elected Public Administrator.

THE POSSIBILITY OF A CONTEST.

No Close Contests For any of the Offices is Reported—City Justices and Constables.

The counting of the returns in this county was very slow and it was not until a late hour last night that an approximate idea of the result could be obtained, and even then there were several precincts throughout the county which had not been heard from. The ballots and returns from a number of these precincts were received by the County Clerk, but the officers at the precincts disregarded the instructions sent them and failed to mark the official count on the back of the envelopes. This will delay the giving of the official returns until the Board of Supervisors open the envelopes.

There was reported a dispute about the counting of tickets at Pasadena probably from the same cause at as at certain precincts in this city, which delayed the count. This dispute arose from the fact that Judge Sullivan's name on some of the tickets was printed a line below where it ought to have been. The law bearing on this point is section 1,160 of the Political Code, and when the matter was brought to the notice of District Attorney Dupuy he sent instructions to the polling places to count these ballots, but in several instance the ballots were thrown out and not counted. These when counted may reduce the majorities in no inconsiderable amount.

The returns as far as received show a considerable majority throughout the city and county for the Republican candidates, and it was considered doubtful if a single Democratic candidate would be elected.

Seventy-Sixth Assembly District.

Following is the complete count of the precincts named, which includes all that reached the city up to a late hour last night:

CITY AND SUBURBS.

Aftermath From the Great Election Day.

THE WALSH-BELL NUPTIALS.

Other Lines of Local Interest About the Angelic City Gathered by "Herald" Men.

Politics reigned supreme throughout the city yesterday. The early risers found that the streets were already occupied by knots of individuals who, by their general appearance, conveyed the idea that they had not sought the embraces of Morpheus during the night, and this was about the case in many instances. After the illuminated bulletins were stopped outside the newspaper offices the throngs that occupied the streets went to cafes and restaurants to talk the matter over, and at intervals a delegate would be dispatched to interview some tired editor and ascertain if there was any further news. The Republicans were hopeful, and so were the Democrats, and either side bristled with "coming proof" that their party was victorious. When the morning papers appeared they were seized and their contents hastily devoured, the result being apparently to make the adherents of both parties more sanguine than ever. It was of course conceded that so far as Los Angeles county was concerned the Republicans had things all their own way, though odds of 100 to 50 were offered that the Democrats would elect one candidate, the person in view being evidently Chalk Roberts.

At 11 A. M. the special addition of the HERALD appeared upon the streets and the newsboys reaped a rich harvest for two or three hours. The papers sold like wild-fire and little throngs could be seen all about the principal thoroughfares in the centers of which stood individuals who read the latest advices from all over the country. And so the day wore on, the situation when old Sol disappeared from the scene being about the same as in the morning. The statements that Indiana had certainly, and Ohio possibly, gone Democratic aroused an enthusiasm among the "unterrified" that was only surpassed by the appearance of the telegram from W. D. English stating that California had gone for Cleveland by about 500. Betting at even figures still ruled at the close of the day, and when night came on the crowds once more assembled outside the bulletin canvasses and watched eagerly the figures as they appeared upon the scene, Telegrams speaking of gains were received with clamors of applause, while dispatches of a depressing nature met with comments of disgust from those who had a financial besides a political interest in the result.

BELL-WALSH.

A Merry Party Assembles on Figueroa Street.

At noon yesterday Miss Bessie Bell and Mr. Frank E. Walsh were married at the residence of the bride's parents on Figueroa street. Mr. Walsh is well known in both social and business circles as one of the successful young men of the town, having abandoned a real estate agency a year or so ago to enter into the service of Messrs. M. A. Newmark & Co., of which house he is now one of the principal attachés. During Miss Bessie Bell's long residence here she has made herself so popular with all who have had the pleasure of knowing her, that comments on her good qualities are absolutely needless.

The ceremony was of a semi-private nature, only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. Major Bell's residence was handsomely decorated for the occasion and was still further embellished by a phalanx of valuable presents to the bride and bridegroom which adorned a side table in one of the parlors. After the happy event was over a regal wedding breakfast was served, which was not prolonged, however, for at 3 o'clock the bridal pair were to start for San Diego, where they will pass their honeymoon at the Coronado.

Mrs. Walsh looked very charming in a tasteful traveling costume when she appeared ready for the journey, and a shower of good wishes from one and all fellowed the happy couple as they started on their trip through life together, which the HERALD unites with their many friends in wishing that it may be a pleasant one.

THE SYCAMORE CANON KILLING.

The Coroner's Jury Refuses to Point Out the Boys.

The Coroner's inquest on the body of Pietro Paglinso was concluded yesterday and a verdict was finally returned that the deceased came to his death "from a gunshot wound in the left breast, penetrating the heart, and inflicted by a person or persons unknown. The uncle of the dead boy concluded his testimony without adding any material facts to what he gave last Monday. Marsolo Marico, a laborer on the farm belonging to the boy's uncle, testified that he heard the report of the gun—he did not know but it was two guns. He went to the house and found the doors unlocked and things in disorder about the place. Going in search of Pietro he found him dead on the ground, a dog lapping the blood which flowed from the wound in his breast. There were no signs of a struggle to be detected upon the ground.

The Coroner then asked the boys, Smith and Casson, whether they had any evidence to offer; but acting under the instructions of their attorney, they both refused.

Anticipating the verdict of the jury, the uncle of the slaughtered boy went over to the District Attorney's office and swore out a complaint against the two young men, charging them with murder. They were taken before Justice Taney, and Nov. 22d was set for their examination.

He Dropped the Reins.

A man named John Connors had a narrow escape yesterday morning on the road between this city and Pasadena. He was driving a two-horse team toward the city with an empty wagon and the animals became scared at a passing train on the California Central road. They ran away and Connors, who is an inexperienced teamster, dropped the reins in his excitement, the result being that the runaways had things all their own way. It was a regular ride for life for some minutes according to Connor's account, and he finally dropped out of the back of the wagon, leaving the animals to their fate. They were subsequently caught near the bed of the river where they were resting quietly after their exertions and occasionally looking around at the wreck of the wagon which they still bore with them and by its general state of demoralization bore ample evidence of the rough usage it had received.

The Police Commissioners.

The Board of Police Commissioners came together yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and held a short and rather important meeting. Several transfers of saloon licenses were made, the Mayor taking occasion to warn several of the holders that they must keep more strictly within the letter of the law, or else run the risk of having their licenses revoked. An application from the drivers of the patrol wagon for an increase of salary was received and discussed and laid over.

D. G. W. Ragland appeared to enter a complaint against Officer Church, whose beat is on Spring street. Ragland said that he had stopped his buggy for a moment to speak to a friend and the officer ordered him to move on. Not liking the way in which the representative of the law spoke, Mr. Ragland objected and Church said, "You would feel very cheap now if I was to arrest you and have you fined $10 for obstructing the way." The officer stated in his own defense that the man had refused to move on when asked to do so, and that perhaps he was a little exasperated when he spoke to him. After both sides of the affair were heard Officer Church was warned to be careful not to speak too roughly to citizens and the matter was dropped.

A complaint having come from the police with regard to the bad reputation of the saloon of Joe Guntz, on Alameda street, the proprietor himself appeared and explained matters. He said that his children had been ill and that he had been compelled to leave his affairs in the charge of an irresponsible barkeeper. He had now gotten rid of the man and he believed that peace would once more prevail in that section of Alameda street.

A number of bills were audited and approved. The matter of the 5 per cent. charge for collection which has previously been allowed the Chief of Police came up for discussion, and Chief Benedict announced that it was the view of the City Attorney that nothing in the ordinance allowed the fee, and that, therefore, he had paid it back into the treasury.

Officer Auble announced that the crusade against the "Macs" was suspended for a time, waiting for the decision on the question of their right to a trial by jury. The Board then adjourned.

Chamber of Commerce.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was set by the provisions of its by-laws to come off yesterday afternoon. After a considerable period of waiting, when it was quite evident that the election excitement would prevent a quorum from being present, it was decided to adjourn until 3 P. M. next Wednesday. Dr. Widney stated that he represented the Citizens' Harbor Committee, and was desirous of making a report to the Chamber concerning the matter of the improvements in the harbor at San Pedro by the construction of a sea wall. He declared that the matter which would be offered the Chamber for discussion in this report was of so much importance that in his opinion a special meeting had better be ordered. It was finally decided by an informal vote that a special meeting should be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 for that purpose.

Pullman Passengers.

The following Pullman passengers left yesterday for San Francisco and the East:

By the 1:15 P. M. train: Mrs. Einstein, Mr. Dobson, M. Lewis, Mrs. Judge Bicknell, B. A. Kersfield, R. N. Davis, Mr. Shriver, George J. Mitchell, Mr. Metcalf, L. F. Wilson, W. H Richards.

By the 10:30 P. M. train: Mr. Lafille, Mr. Egelson, L. Welcomot, J. D. Harvey, Mr. Reest, W. L. Baker, Mr. Hildebrand.

Criminal Matters.

In Department number one yesterday D. Leiva, who is accused of having murdered an old man named Lopez at Verdugo Cañon, was informed against and November 9th was set for his arraignment. The trial of Harry Coffey was set for the 8th of November. Josi Napoleon, who made a vicious stab at officer Hawley a few weeks ago and was found guilty of assault with intent to murder, was sentenced to one year in the county jail.

HOLLYWOOD!

The beautiful foothill suburb of Los Angeles at Cahuenga Pass is higher than the highest point in the city. This most lovely spot is situated six miles west of Los Angeles in the frostless belt. It possesses the finest soil in the world—nothing equal to it elsewhere. It will grow successfully the most delicate flower or tender plant in midwinter, without irrigation; in fact, we never irrigate this foothill land. It does not require it. It is a very healthy location. No malaria, but little fog, pure, unmolested ocean breeze every day in the year. Pure, soft water. Therefore no more healthy location can be found anywhere. Fine view of ocean vessels, city, valley and mountain. We defy competition in all of the advantages that go to make A DESIRABLE SPOT FOR A HOME! It cannot be beat. Yes, it cannot be equaled. I know this is saying a great deal. I am willing to stake my reputation on what I say. I am residing at Hollywood, and intend to make it our permanent home. A number of fine buildings are now being built at this point. Water is being piped. Cement sidewalks are being put down. The Cahuenga Valley Railroad is finished to this place, and six trains each way are now running on this road. See time table. This railroad is running in connection with the Second street Cable. Half-fare tickets will be sold to persons residing at Hollywood, thus affording splendid connection with the city. The Los Angeles County Railroad will soon be completed and running to this place.

HOLLYWOOD

Is now for the first time offered for sale, at low prices and easy terms, in quantities to suit purchasers. Special inducements will be offered to persons making valuable improvements, until a certain number of fine houses are secured. After that is done, then land and lots at this point will be held firm for what they are really worth. There is from 6 to 7 acres in a block, and nearly a half acre in a lot. Ask any old citizen of Los Angeles about this location, and then call on me at Hollywood, or WILCOX & SHAW, 34 North Spring street, or on any good reliable real estate firm in Los Angeles, all of whom are hereby authorized to act as my agents.

CAN HARRISON'S POLE REACH IT?

Conflicting Reports of Yesterday's Returns—Opinions of the New York Press.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

NEW YORK, November 7.—An extra of the World, Democrat, says: At 7 o'clock the probabilities are that General Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana, has been chosen President of the Nation, and Levi P. Morton, of New York, Vice President. Returns thus far received indicate that the tariff reform issue has proven strongest in States hopelessly Republican. In Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa and Nebraska the Democratic ticket made large gains upon the lines foreshadowed in the recent tariff debate in the House. These gains, though encouraging, have not been sufficient to offset the Republican majorities in those States and have therefore been of no material advantage to the National Democratic ticket. On the other hand the tariff issue has not proven strong in the doubtful States, particularly New York. The Democratic members of the Ways and Means Committee have been re-elected. They represent solidly Democratic districts in the main, however, though there can be no doubt of the popularity of the tariff issue among their constituents. From latest advices probably Republican gains in the south and east will exceed all expectations. A careful compilation of the Congressional returns received at this hour would indicate that the Republicans will control the next House by from eight to ten majority.

OTHER CONGRESSIONAL ESTIMATES.

The Tribune says: The of Representatives in the Fifty-first Congress will be Republican by 20 to 25 majority. Indications are that this may be slightly increased. The New York delegation will stand 18 Republicans, 16 Democrats. In Connecticut the Republicans gain two Congressmen. In New Jersey they lose one. Some notable gains are recorded in the South, in Louisiana and Arkansas and in the West and in Missouri.

The Times says the Democrats will have a majority in the Fifty-first Congress somewhat larger than in the Fiftieth.

A FORLORN HOPE.

The following are the headlines of an extra to the Evening World; "A Forlorn Hope. It looked as if Illinois might elect Cleveland, but later returns are more and more Republican. You may as well call it 'President Harrison.'"

TARIFF REFORM POLICY ALL RIGHT.

The Evening Post says: "Returns received this morning leave no reasonable doubt of the election of the Republican Presidential ticket. Very little has been received from the country districts of this State, but there is no reason at this writing to think that the full returns will give a Democratic plurality. Indiana is still in doubt."

In an editorial on the result it says: "It is unnecessary to go beyond the city of Brooklyn to find proof that Cleveland was beaten in the State of New York, not because a majority of the voters condemned his policy on tariff reform, but because the majority of voters would not sustain for the Presidency a party which nominated a man like David B. Hill for the Governorship."

The Commercial Advertiser's (Dem.) headlines are; Latest Returns Indicate the Election of Harrison and Morton. A Small Plurality for the Republicans in this State. Hill Re-Elected Governor by About Ten Thousand Plurality. Indiana Probably Republican by a Small Majority. Republicans Will Have a Good Working Majority in the Next Congress.

The Telegram says: So far the election of Harrison stands recorded as next to certain. New York has shifted to the Republican column and made his victory certain if the other States remain as they were in 1884.

The Evening Sun says: The latest dispatches indicate that the election of Harrison is assured beyond question. Corrected returns received from counties in the State so far increase Harrison's plurality to 10,000.

Vague dispatches have been received from Indiana, and so far as they indicate anything they point to Republican gains. Whatever doubt was raised by the reports that Illinois had gone Democratic was dissipated by the latest dispatch from Chicago, which says that the Republican electoral ticket has a plurality of not less than 20,000.

CONNECTICUT'S CLOSENESS.

The Sun says in Connecticut the vote is so close that an official count may be necessary to decide the contest, as has been the case in that State several times before. Unofficial returns received from all but four small towns, give Cleveland a plurality of 350. It is probable that he has carried the State by less than 500 votes.

HARTFORD, November 7.—Sperry, of the Post, says Connecticut gives Cleveland 384 plurality, but an error in New Haven may change it to Harrison.

BRICE WON'T GIVE UP THE SHIP.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The World says Chairman Brice refuses to concede Harrison's election. He has not yet conceded New York State.

ALBANY, November 7.—The Evening Journal estimates a plurality of 12,000 for Harrison and 7,000 for Hill in New York State. The Republicans gain nine Assemblymen. The Congressional delegation is unchanged in political proportion.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—At noon Secretary McPherson, of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, was confident of the election of Harrison, and twelve Republican majority in the next House of Representatives.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The last edition of the Sun makes Harrison's plurality in the State 10,000.

AN OFFICIAL COUNT NECESSARY.

An extra of the World says: At 2:30 P. M. the National Democratic Committee announced that New York was so doubtful that an official count will be necessary to decide the election. This will take three days.

RANDOM REPORTS.

Partial Returns From Many States. Estimates and Conjectures.

The following bulletins relative to the returns in the various States, were sent out by the Associated Press yesterday afternoon:

ST. PAUL, November 7.—The Globe says Wilson, Democrat, is elected Governor, and Harrison and Morton carry the State by 12,000. The Pioneer Press gives Merriam, Republican, for Governor, 1,500 plurality.

DETROIT, November 7.—Michigan has gone Republican by a plurality of 13,000 to 18,000 on the electoral ticket. Luce, Republican, for Governor, runs behind the rest of the ticket 5,000 owing to the opposition of the liquor men. The Republicans gain two Congressmen, perhaps three. The Legislature is safely Republican on joint ballot, insuring the election of a Republican Senator to succeed Palmer.

HARTFORD, Conn., November 7.—Connecticut gives Cleveland, for President, a plurality of 429 with two towns to hear from, which will reduce it to about 350. Morris, Dem., beat Bulkeley, Rep., for Governor by 15,000, with three towns to hear from. The Congressional delegation stands three Republicans, one Democrat; the General Assembly about the same as last year.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The opinion formed last night which gave the State of New York to Harrison for President, and to Hill, Dem., for Governor, is confirmed by later scattering returns. The districts yet to be heard from cast in 1884 a total of 364,520 votes. Reports by counties indicate a further gain of 5,200 for Harrison. If the scattering precincts not heard from keep up the draft shown in the adjoining precincts heard from, Harrison's plurality will be from 5,000 to 10,000; Hill's about 10,000. Sunset Cox has been re-elected.

NEW ORLEANS, November 7.—Cleveland's majority in the State is estimated at 30,000.

COLUMBIA, S. C., November 7.—The Republican vote was small. The Democrats carry the State by 35,000. The returns indicate the election of every Democratic candidate for Congress.

PHILADELPHIA, November 7.—"Pig-iron" Kelly and O'Neil are re-elected to Congress.

JERSEY CITY, November 7.—The Democratic State Committee claim the State by 8,000.

PHILADELPHIA, November 7.—Returns from 54 counties, including Philadelphia, out of 67, indicate that Harrison will have 65,000 plurality in Pennsylvania.

WILMINGTON, Del., November 7.—The State is Democratic for President, but the Legislature is probably Republican.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., November 7.—The result of the election in King's county was surprising to the Democratic leaders, who expected 23,000 plurality for Cleveland. The shrinkage is accounted for by the return of the Mugwumps and Prohibitionists of four years ago, to the Republican party. The majority will not exceed 13,000 in Kings county.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7.—The returns from 77 of 91 precincts in this (Marion) county, show a plurality of 500 to 800 for the Democratic ticket. Large gains were made in the rural districts. The Labor districts in the city also show Democratic gains. Four hundred precincts of Indiana show a net Republican gain of 2,576.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7, 11 A. M.—The feeling at this writing is one of uncertainty. Returns are coming in very slowly. Democratic gains are shown in the returns from Marion county, but some of the strongest Republican wards and precincts are yet to hear from. Both sides claim the State, but each admit that it may go either way. The latest reports show that in 440 out of 1,806 precincts in the State, Harrison has a net gain of 2,800. Important reports are expected every minute, and the excitement on the street is intense. The Republicans are inclined to be jubilant over the indications showing Harrison's election, but feel, as one gentleman expressed it, that the sauce will be spoiled in seasoning if Indiana goes Democratic. So there are no marked demonstrations.

MINNEAPOLIS, November 7.—The Republican State Committee claims a plurality of 25,000 for Harrison and Morton; 16,000 for Merriam, Rep., for Governor; 20,000 for the balance of the State ticket, and the election of five Republican Congressmen.

TRENTON, N. J., November 7.—The Democratic plurality in New Jersey is now estimated at 5,000. The legislature will be Democratic by a close vote. The Senate stands, Democrats 11, Republicans 10. This is the first time in ten years that the Democrats have had the Senate: the lower house is claimed by the Republicans to be a tie, but the Democrats say they have a majority. The closeness of the Legislature will make the contest for United States Senator, next winter, unusually exciting.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7, 11:30 A. M.—510 out of 1,806 precincts in the State give Harrison 76,378, Cleveland 68,178. In 1884 Blaine received 70,272, Cleveland 63,330, a net Republican gain of 3,362.

DES MOINES, November 7.—Harrison's plurality in Iowa will probably exceed 30,000. Weaver in the Sixth district and Anderson in the Eighth, were both beaten, giving the Republicans every Congressman in the State but one.

DETROIT, November 7.—The election of Wheeler, Republican, in the tenth district over Fisher, the present incumbent, is conceded. This leaves but one district, the seventh, in doubt, and is a Republican gain of three. Should Whiting, Democrat, be re-elected in the seventh, which now seems probable, the delegation will stand nine Republicans and two Democrats. Additional returns received up to noon do not materially change the vote for Governor. Luce's plurality will exceed 10,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—Returns from 30 out of 38 precincts in San Joaquin county give Harrison 1,181, Cleveland 2,195.

Returns throughout California are coming in very slowly, and as there are no complete city or county returns, no basis of comparison with the vote of '84 is possible. The Republican and Democratic State Central Committees both claim the State, the former by from 7,000 to 9,000, while the Democrats contend that the Democratic Presidential ticket will have a majority of from 2,000 to 3,000.

The city of San Francisco has been carried by the Democrats. The Evening Post (Rep.) says Cleveland's majority in the city will be 4,600, while the Democrats claim that the majority of Cleveland will approximate from 8,000 to 9,000 in the city, and that the Republicans will not come to the city with a sufficient vote to overcome this. The entire Democratic city ticket is elected in San Francisco.

HARTFORD, Conn., November 7.—Late returns state the election of Congressman Edward W. Seymour (Dem.) in the Fourth District. By the vote of Newton his majority is 398. The Congressmen are thus equally divided—two each.

RICHMOND, Va., November 7.—Great excitement prevails here to-day, in striking contrast with the quiet situation of yesterday. Cleveland has carried the State by a reduced majority. The Democrats elect six Congressmen; Republicans one, and three doubtful.

CINCINNATI, November 7.—Returns from Ohio continue to show the same ratio of Democratic gain over Foraker's vote last year. He had a plurality of something over 23,000. Indications point to a reduced plurality for Harrison. Some estimate it at 13,000 to 15,000.

Republican Congressmen are elected in the First, Second, Third, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-first districts, making 15. Democrats are elected in the Fourth, Fifth, Tenth, Thirteenth and Sixteenth, making 5. The Sixth is in doubt, both sides claiming election.

ST. PAUL, November 7.—The Republicans claim the election of Merriam, Republican, for Governor by 16,000. The Democrats concede his election by a small plurality.

COLUMBUS, O., November 7.—Chairman Cappellar claims the State by 24,000 for Harrison. The Democratic Committee makes no claim, but says the National ticket is close. There seems to be no doubt that the State is Republican and that the Republicans made a net gain of one Congressman.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., November 7.—The Republican State and county ticket was carried with probably one exception, Prosecuting Attorney. No definite news will be received before to-morrow.

TRENTON, N. J., November 7.—The latest returns show that the Democrats will have a majority of three on joint ballot in the next Legislature.

WILMINGTON, November 7.—Delaware's Legislature is still in doubt. The election of two members will give the Democrats control of the next General Assembly.

ST. LOUIS, November 7.—Unofficial returns of the vote of this city show most extraordinary and altogether surprising results. Harrison's majority is over 6,000; Kimball, Republican, for Governor, 10,000, and the Republican city ticket will range from 3,500 to 8,000. It is known that the Republicans gain three Congressmen with many important points to hear from.

Afternoon Bulletins.

Following are the bulletins in order as issued yesterday afternoon by the Western Union Telegraph Company:

CHICAGO, November 7.—Indiana—640 precincts, Cleveland 90,366, Harrison 99,250.

Colorado—34 out of 43 counties, Harrison 12,000 majority.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., November 7.—The entire Republican city ticket is elected. Both parties claim Missouri.

North Carolina—One-fourth of the State shows a Democratic gain of 938.

Nevada—43 out of 172 precincts give Harrison 3,147, Cleveland 2,237. The Republicans claim the State.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—The count in San Francisco is progressing slowly. Republicans say Cleveland's majority in the city will be 4,600. The Democrats claim a majority of 8,000 to 9,000. The election of the entire Democratic ticket is conceded.

Reports from Indiana say 510 out of 1,806 precincts in the State give Harrison 75,378; Cleveland 68,178; a net Republican gain of 3,362.

CHICAGO, November 7.—City complete, Cleveland 62,168, Harrison 58,661, Palmer 66,123, Fifer 57,213.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Evening Telegram puts Harrison's plurality at 10,000, Hill's at 17,000.

IOWA, November 7.—The Republican majority will reach 30,000. The Republicans will elect every Congressman except in the Second District.

GEORGIA, November 7.—Two-thirds of the State, Cleveland 25,000 majority.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Evening World says West Virginia is still doubtful.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7, 2:44 P. M.—An Examiner extra claims that Indiana is surely Democratic, has a hope of Illinois, and publishes a telegram received by W. D. English that New York is safe and there is no doubt that Cleveland is elected. The Republicans still claim the election of Harrison.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7.—700 precincts out of 1,806 in the State give Harrison 110,693, Cleveland 101,460. The same precincts in 1884 gave Blaine 101,031, Cleveland 96,851; a net Republican gain of 5,055.

DELAWARE, November 7.—The Legislature is still in doubt. The election of two members will give the Democrats control of the Legislature.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—4:25 P. M.—445 precincts in California, outside of San Francisco, give Harrison 27,499, Cleveland 25,544.

In the First Congressional District 74 precincts out of 411, give DeHaven, Rep., 4,100; Thompson, Dem., 4,440. Second Congressional District, 101 precincts out of 359 give Egan, Rep., 5,690; Biggs, Dem., 5,481. Third Congressional District, 69 precincts out of 181, give McKenna, Rep,, 4,317; Morgan, Dem., 3,636. Fifth Congressional District, 28 precincts out of 86 outside of San Francisco, give Phelps 1,990, Clunie, Dem., 1,776, Sixth Congressional District, 61 out of 553 give Vandever, Rep., 11,407, Terry, Dem., 9,249.

Kansas so far gives Cleveland 9,755, Harrison 19,485.

AH THERE, BEN!

He Feels Good, But Won't Holler Till He's Out of the Woods.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7.—General Harrison did not rise very early this morning. It was 3 o'clock when the bulletins ceased coming for the night, and the General retired. After figuring out from Indiana precincts in, the result showed a net gain of six votes to the precinct, which if maintained throughout would turn the State Republican. This was hopeful, even encouraging news; at least it proved good news for the General to go to bed on, for he got a good night's rest, looking and feeling in excellent health and spirits. At 9 o'clock the bulletins were resumed, and seemed to set at rest all doubts about New York. Coincident with these later New York bulletins, there began to arrive a flood of congratulatory telegrams from all sections of the country. General Harrison is very conservative about congratulations and wants to feel sure he is out of the woods before he permits himself to participate in such proceedings. There are a great many callers at the house to-day. In fact, the neighbors come in and take apparent possession. On the outside there is quite a crowd standing gazing at the house, looking to catch a glimpse of the General as he occasionally passes the windows. The demonstrations in the city are of the most enthusiastic character. Large crowds are collected about the Journal building and the New Denison Hotel, cheering for Ben Harrison.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION, 123-5 West Second street, between Spring and Fort, Los Angeles.

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 8, 1888.

AT two o'clock this morning the latest Associate Press dispatches are to the effect that Chairman Jewett of the Democratic State Central Committee of Indiana, concedes that his State has gone Republican by a small majority, and that the President, who takes the matter most philosophically, concedes that he is defeated.

TABULATED returns from all the precincts of Los Angeles city, according to the figures of the election officers, will be found on another page of the HERALD this morning. These returns show a Republican plurality on the head of the ticket of about one thousand three hundred. This will be materially reduced when the Supervisors recount the vote and give the Democratic candidates the votes erroneously thrown out by the election officers. It will probably reduce the plurality to less than one thousand.

AN Angeleño in whose judgment we have great confidence differs with the HERALD'S estimate that in five years from now the city of Los Angeles will contain 125,000 and the county 250,000 inhabitants. On a careful review we think that he is right. He is of the opinion that the city of Los Angeles will number 100,000 people in a year from to-day, and that in five years the figures will have swollen to 150,000. This is an imposing total, but it is warranted by our phenomenal growth during the past lustrum.

THE divine "Williams" tells us that there is a soul of good in things evil would men but observingly distill it out. In the heated Presidential campaign in the United States there is ordinarily little that can be classed as good, but the canvass which is just over has furnished the exception that proves the rule. It was long and wearing, but it was to a marked degree free from the personalities, vituperation and bitterness that characterize the average struggle for the control of the national government. It was fought to the end without arraigning Mr. Cleveland as a villain or Mr. Harrison as a horse-thief. To their honor the press of both sides discarded the old and time-honored resort to Billingsgate.

EXCELLENT order prevailed at all the Precincts in Los Angeles city on election day. There were nearly thirteen thousand out of the fifteen thousand votes of the city cast. The people were in a white heat of earnestness, but it was earnestness of the best natured sort. While for thirteen hours the electors thronged the polling places and deposited their ballots, there did not occur the semblance of a disturbance. Such good order is somewhat due to the excellent manner in which the Deputy Marshals, the police and other peace officers performed their duties; but after making all allowances for the efficiency of these corps of officials, there is no doubt that it is to the orderly, law-abiding disposition of the citizens of this pueblo that we must look for the reason of this very satisfactory state of affairs. The city is to be congratulated on this very proud result of so earnest a political contest, for such it was. Indeed never before was there a campaign of greater earnestness carried on.

THERE appeared in the HERALD yesterday a very interesting article from the Chicago Inter-Ocean containing an interview with an enthusiastic Californian on this State and its prospects. So far as the opinions and statements went in regard to the upper portion of the State they were in the main correct, but when we come to those referring to this section they were not so near the line of fact. The climate of San Francisco is not objectionable so far as people of robust health are concerned, but for children, invalids, and persons of weak constitution from any cause it is rather robustious during the greater part of the year. Then there is no doubt that oranges are grown to some slight extent in the Sacramento valley, but that industry will never be a paying proposition in the counties north of Tehachepi pass. As to the prosperity of the two sections of California, now that the citizen of the Bay City has challenged the comparison, there is no comparison to be made, so overwhelmingly greater is the growth of the Southern counties than is the central and northern portions. The vote cast yesterday will be the best evidence of this claim. When the results come to be summoned up it will appear that the lower counties are increasing in population three times as rapidly as any of those around San Francisco. The Assessor's valuations of property show even a larger ratio of increase in our wealth.

The General Result.

If the dispatch from New York announcing that that State has given over eleven thousand plurality for Harrison is based on accurate returns, the chances are in favor of the gentleman from Indiana carrying off the Presidential prize. But we cannot forget that the first reports claimed that New York had gone Republican by twenty-five thousand majority. This dispatch reduces that claim to less than one-half. It is not at all probable that complete returns have been received from the whole State, and without those returns, we are getting guesswork. Up to the last moment, four years ago, the Republicans claimed the State for Blaine by even larger majorities than are now set up. We all know how that ended. It may be the same this time. It is hard to believe that the returns we have received from Kings county are correct. Thirteen thousand Democratic majority in that county is ridiculously small. It gave Cleveland nearly sixteen thousand in 1884, and the ratio of Cleveland's increase this year ought to bring it up to twenty thousand at least. There is reason to believe that Calvin S. Brice knew what he was talking about when he telegraphed late on election day that Kings county would give Cleveland twenty-two thousand majority. Some of the remote counties in New York have a way of holding back their returns to see how many votes are required to offset the majority below High Bridge. Perhaps the actual majority in Kings has been obscured to defeat any sharp practice that may be attempted in the remote northern counties. We shall not give up New York until we have heard more definitely and authoritatively from all parts of the State. We are perhaps hanging to a very slender thread; but so we were in 1884, and yet we carried the State in spite of the tremendous majorities by which the Republicans had claimed it.

Failing to carry New York, we see very little hope of getting enough electoral votes elsewhere to make up for it. Gray assures us of Indiana by a satisfactory majority. Connecticut is close, but we have it by a scratch. New Jersey is ours by a round vote. California, we fear, is in jeopardy. A glimmer of hope at one time elated us from Illinois; but nothing assures us that we can anywhere make up for New York's 36 electoral votes if that State has really gone against us. We shall still, however, look to carry those votes until it is shown that we have lost them beyond the peradventure of a doubt.

Since the above was written, the New York dispatch has been re-formed, and we now learn that its returns are "unofficial and incomplete!"

The County.

There are 131 precincts in this county. At this writing (1 A. M.) we have heard from 113 of these precincts, leaving thirty yet to come in. The vote in the 113 precincts heard from is for Cleveland, 9,898; for Harrison, 13,999. This gives Harrison a majority so far of 4,101. This majority will be reduced several hundred by counting the ballots arbitrarily thrown out for irregularity in printing a single name. The thirteen precincts to come in will not increase this majority over one hundred votes. Nobody prior to the election had the remotest idea that this county would pile up a Republican majority of this formidable extent. Yet it must be remembered that the great increase of population in the last two years has added nearly twenty thousand new names to the Great Register. This was an unknown quantity in the election which nobody could politically fix excepting by the merest guesswork; and it must be admitted that the guesswork on both sides has fallen far short of the reality. With the Republican majorities in this end of the State and the gains in some other counties, California will go for Harrison unless San Francisco can give Cleveland a majority of between seven and eight thousand.

The Comedy of a Campaign.

There is both a tragedy and a comedy side to a political campaign. The last element enters into the count when the polls are closed, the votes counted and the appalling consciousness settles upon the one or the other of the sets of the contestants that their cake is dough. The candidate is the modern Gladiator, and pangs just as poignant as those which surged through the breast of Byron's Dying Gladiator agitate the breasts of the defeated. In the one case there is physical agony and death. In the other, throes of wounded pride that are worse than bodily scars, and that political thanatopsis which replaces death by political extinction.

We can well sympathize with the blank misery of a man who has identified himself with a noble cause, and who finds himself stricken down in the house of his friends, his fine schemes of public good discounted and his pride humbled in the dust. Perhaps the most conspicuous instance of this tragedy of politics occurred in the career of Horace Greeley, who retired from the Presidential contest of 1872 to die.

But we propose to deal with the lighter phases of politics, and to give a passing word to the comical aspects of a campaign. There is your devoted partizan, who knows that his man is bound to win. He leads up to the fateful day with all sorts of extravagant predictions of the result. He is the Sir Oracle of all the circles he frequents. There is no limit to what he knows as to the intentions of the individual, of townships, cities, counties, States and even the nation. He is gifted, in his mind's eye, with a never failing prescience. Long before the opposing cohorts meet in battle array he knows every disposition of the field, and has every squadron appointed to its proper place. The idea of defeat never once enters his mind.

The election over, how diligently this ingenious man is on the alert! He faces the bulletin boards of the newspapers with the firm faith that the telegrams will come out precisely in accordance with his forecast. He is generally willing to back his opinion with his cash, and he has probably put up every cent he could rake or scrape on the result. His face wears a genial anticipatory smile until the figures begin to crowd upon the canvass in front of the stereopticon when, alas! to one man out of every two there inevitably comes a change. It is like that chilling frost described by Wolsey, which "nipped his root;" and, presto! the heretofore gay and dogmatic "know all" becomes the prey of direst despair. He has probably tact enough to dissemble his mood; but from that time forward his gaiety is forced, his smiles are sardonic and he is a mere wreck of his aforetime confident and domineering self. He realizes with dismay that he has thrown into the betting vortex money that he cannot well afford to lose; and, on the principle of "throwing in the tail with the hide," he probably plunges into the opposite extreme, and solaces his grief in flowing beakers of Extra Dry Mumm or Moet and Chandon.

A more pleasing picture is the fellow who hasn't got a cent, and who don't care whether school keeps or no. If his favorite candidates come out ahead his face is like unto the sun at midday, and his lungs are leather lined with brass. His loud laugh, which speaks the mind vacant of care, rings out upon the air in the intervals in which his cheers are not rivalring the clamor that blew down the walls of Jericho.

All these lighter types we have lately seen in Los Angeles. They will be seen everywhere as long as there are elections in the land. They are the ever reliable comedy accompaniments of free institutions.

SEVERAL hundred Democratic ballots have been thrown out in this county because they were irregularly printed. That is, in one place the candidate's name was dropped down a line below the line designating the office. Of course the precinct officers will be compelled to count these ballots if they cut any figure in turning the election of any candidate. But it is an irregularity in the printing of the tickets which should not have occurred. The HERALD job office printed a small proportion of the Democratic tickets, and it is needless to say that none of the impugned ballots were printed in our office. In spite of the fact that Lieutenant-Governor White protested against the action of the election officers in refusing to count these tickets, and read to them a decision of the Supreme Court that met the emergency, they persisted in throwing them out.

THERE have been a great many instances in which the war failed to come up to the manifesto, but we doubt very much whether there has ever been a more marked example of this kind than has been afforded by the Prohibition party of Los Angeles county in the last election. The two thousand to twenty-five hundred votes which they were to have polled in Los Angeles county have shrunk in a very remarkable manner. The solution of this circumstance is doubtless creditable to the modesty of our Prohibition friends. They evidently have not desired to make themselves obtrusive. We are told that children should be seen and not heard. Los Angeles Prohibitionists take the antithesis of this proposition. They were heard a good deal but they are not much seen in the returns.

THE Congressional vote in this city is in from all but thirteen precincts. It gives Vandever 13,868 votes; Terry, 9,907; Miller (Pro.), 1,175, and Daggett (Am.), 67.

THE vote for the Prohibition electors, as far as it is in, from 118 precincts in this county is 1,284. The American ticket was modestly satisfied with 73 admirers.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Later On" at the Grand Opera House.

Despite the fact that so much interest centers in election returns, the attraction at the Grand Opera-house, Hallen & Hart's fine company in Later On draws good business every night. The play is full of good things in the way of singing, dancing and funny sayings, many of which are a long way from being chestnuts. The play holds the boards for the week.

Next Week.

The next thing on the tapis is Donnelly and Girard's Laughing Gas, which comes here in a completely new garb. It opens next Monday and will run a week. The advance agent, Mr. Charles F. Wiegand, is now in the city preparing for its presentation.

The entertainment to be given by the Caledonian Club to-morrow evening promises to be a very enjoyable one. Mr. Geo. St. S. Bremner, Miss Katherine Kimball, Miss Ida White and Tom Barnes and others are to take part.

A Warm-Hearted Democrat.

Mr. J. W. Owens is the right sort of a Democrat. If the country were full of his kind there would be no doubt about how the election has gone. Although a perfect stranger, he stood on the roof of the HERALD building for hours in the cold last Tuesday night and worked like a double team posting up the returns for the delectation of his fellow-Democrats in the crowd below. He is a true blue, dyed in the wool, a yard wide and weighs a ton. More power to Mr. Owen's elbow.

Will Write Us Up.

It is of great interest to this section that Mr. G. M. Smith, whose interesting articles on California have attracted so much attention of late, has made arrangements to make an extensive tour of the State for the purpose of writing it up for Eastern papers. Mr. Smith is a versatile writer of rare ability, and his letters will be looked for with deep interest.

Who Owns the Dog?

A lady coming in from the East a few days ago lost a pet dog on the train about the crossing of the Colorado river. The canine is at the Depot hotel, and may be had by calling on Charlie Rowley at that place.

The Democrats Seem to Have Some Interesting Revelations to Make From Kings County—What Can It Be?

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Evening World in an extra quotes Chairman Brice of the Democratic National Committee, as having said: "We concede nothing, and from the latest returns I think there is a fair indication that Cleveland has carried New York State." Following this in the World extra is this: This is what they say at National headquarters, and it was given out as the official utterance of the National Committee to the crowd of anxious visitors who thronged their parlors this morning in search of the latest news. The statement is based upon the fact that corrected returns from the interior counties of the State show a large cutting down of the earlier Harrison gains, and many of the counties whose plurality had already been given purporting to be in full, are still found to be incomplete and particularly is this true, it is claimed, in King's county, where it is said there will be a fight before the count is completed.

When it was learned that Illinois and Wisconsin might be close States, as well as Indiana and Connecticut, telegrams were sent to the Chairmen of the State Committees in each State.

Mr. De Forest was the only one at the Democratic State Committee rooms. He said: "We are not in as bad shape as we were on the day after the election in '84. We will concede nothing. I have wired to every county for revised returns. Till I receive them I shall claim the State. There are errors in the King's county returns, though how extensive I do not know. The count will be looked after."

At the Republican headquarters Colonel Quay said: "I can't say anything until it is all over. Of course Harrison is elected and has undoubtedly carried New York State. I am told that an attempt has been made by the Democrats in King county to steal the State, but they cannot do it."

In the same issue of the World, which contains the above, in double leaded type, carried over from an earlier edition, are these words: "Apropos of Col. Brice conceding nothing, there is little reasonable doubt that Benjamin Harrison will be the next President of the United States."

In the same edition of the World are these editorial expressions: We do not give up just yet. Cleveland has in all probability lost the State of New York, but there is a cheerful prospect that he may have a majority of the electoral votes. The Republicans claim everything. While the latest returns positively insure the States of Indiana, New Jersey and Connecticut for the Democrats. This gives the Democrats 183 out of the necessary 201 votes, with California 8, Nevada 3, and Illinois 22, as doubtful. Illinois is almost certain to increase the Democratic vote, and the National Committee does not give it up for Cleveland.

NOT YET SETTLED.

The Evening News, Democratic, in a late extra heads up its election matter thus: "Not yet settled; Cleveland depending on Illinois and California; New York probably Republican; Connecticut and Indiana both Democratic." The matter thus headed up is as follows: "The result of the election for President is still in doubt. The Democrats claim Illinois, California and Nevada, which would elect Cleveland without New York, as the Democrats have undoubtedly carried New Jersey, Connecticut and Indiana. It looks as if New York has been carried by the Republicans, as the returns from the Republican counties continue to pour in and show gains. The latest returns show Harrison's plurality to be about 8,000, but many of the counties are estimated. Captain McClellan, Secretary of the Executive Campaign Committee, has telegraphed to the State Committees of Illinois and Wisconsin for the latest returns. Both States are still in doubt. The National Democratic Committee does not concede New York to the Republicans. No returns have been received to show anything more than that the State is close. Connecticut and Indiana have been won. California is very favorable to the Democrats, and in Illinois there is a firm claim for the Democratic Presidential as well as the Gubernatorial ticket.

HOW CLEVELAND RECEIVED THE NEWS.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—At the White House last night the President and a small party assembled in the library and received the election news furnished by the Associated Press over a special wire. Dispatches were also received from personal friends of the President, but it was said by one of the Executive clerks, whom Colonel Lamont deputied to see the newspaper men, that nothing whatever had been received from the Democratic National Committee.

AN ELECTION RIOT.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., November 7.—In an election riot at Bowling Green, Ky., a mob of negroes attacked Supervisor Wilkerson. He defended himself with a revolver, and one of the negroes was killed and one dangerously wounded, and the white man was shot through the arm.

HOW THEY VOTED IN 'FRISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—In general it may be said the election in this city passed off quietly. The election Commissioners were at the City Hall early in the day to hear complaints, but fewer were filed than were expected. The first complaint was that "stuffers" were at work. The complainants were told there was no remedy for them, but to arrest those who had committed the crime. Several arrests were made for alleged illegal voting. E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin made application to vote, but he not having registered according to law, his application was denied. At the fifth precinct of the Thirty-Second District, a colored man named Imes, was shot in the leg by an unknown party when about to vote. In many of the precincts of the city the majority of the vote was cast in the forenoon. The crowds around the bulletin boards were simply enormous, and at times very enthusiastic. At different times during the night small parades of both political parties were marching at different places, both parties claiming the election.

CHAIRMAN QUAY'S CLAIM.

NEW YORK, November 7.—Senator Quay, Chairman of the Republican National Committee, authorizes the following statement: The Republicans on Tuesday carried by an increased majority all the States that were carried for Blaine in 1884, and in addition have New York by a plurality of 15,000, and Indiana by a plurality of from 4,000 to 6,000. West Virginia is in doubt, General Harrison's election is assured.

CHARGED WITH CROOKEDNESS.

DES MOINES, November 7.—The Sheriff of Adams county arrived here to-day with a warrant for the arrest of E. H. Hunter, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, on the charge of bribery. A Democrat was arrested at Corning, Hunter's home, yesterday, on the charge of repeating. He admitted that he voted in two different townships but made affidavit that he voted the second time at the instigation of Hunter, who gave him two dollars for doing so. The Sheriff was unable to find Hunter who had skipped out of town, leaving word he had gone to Chicago.

NEW YORK, November 7.—An incident of the local fight was the holding of Assemblyman Charles Smith, Republican, in $2,000 bail by the United States Committee, on attempting to prevent voters from freely exercising their franchise. Mr. Smith heard of the warrant and gave himself up. Three men were held in $2,000 bail each on the charge of illegal registration at the Jefferson Market police court to-day.

NEW YORK RETURNS.

Unofficial Returns Give Harrison a Plurality of 11,191.

NEW YORK, November 7—11 P. M.—The unofficial vote of all the counties in the State as far as the returns are in, show for Cleveland 78,956, and for Harrison 90,157, giving Harrison a plurality in the State of 11,191.

INDIANA.

The Faithful Still Wait Hopeful for the End.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7.—The city has been in a ferment since early morning. Long before the hour for the resumption of bulleting, a large crowd gathered around the newspaper offices, calling "returns, returns," and clamoring to know the latest from New York and Indiana. As darkness came on, the crowds began to grow around the Journal premises, standing patiently. As the stereopticon illuminated the last returns from New York City and Kings county, confirming the previous figures, the crowd grew boisterous and hilarious and cheering. In the corridors of the New Denison the scenes of last night are being repeated upon a moderated scale. At the Gates and Grand Hotels large crowds are congregated, but no demonstrations are in progress. Congratulatory telegrams have poured in upon General Harrison since early morning, and from all parts of the country. The press will be given access to these telegrams at such time as General Harrison thinks proper. Under the circumstances he is not disposed to be hasty in this matter, taking the same cool, but serious view of the election as he manifested in such a marked degree throughout the campaign.

It has been an anxious day for the crowd at Democratic headquarters. The returns from New York were very depressing and all eyes were turned to Indiana. At 8 o'clock this evening the Committee rooms were packed with seekers after the latest news. Chairman Jewett, Mr. Sheerin, Secretary of the Democratic National Committee, and a large corps of assistants have been busily engaged since early morning in receiving and tabulating the returns from various parts of the State. When an Associated Press correspondent called this evening after Mr. Sheerin was in charge, when asked for an expression regarding the result in Indiana, he said:

We have heard from fifty-four counties officially and have the figures claimed by the Republicans for the rest; our returns give the State ticket to Cleveland by from 1500 to 2000 plurality. The State ticket is behind their national ticket, so that our ticket will have a larger plurality than that. I think we have gained three, and possibly four, Congressmen, and we have a good working majority in both branches of the Legislature. Our returns are official from every county. Our committemen send them to us as soon as they can get them exactly."

Opinions expressed among the Democrats generally are varied, but a great many are conceding the State to the Republicans. Meanwhile the faithful keep up their weary wait.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7.—The following dispatch was received from Chicago:

CHICAGO, Ill., November 7, 1888.

Hon. Benj. Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind.:

Congratulations upon your election. Chicago is proud of the fact that her great auditorium was dedicated by the nomination of our countries' next President. [Signed] FRED W. PECK.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7.—780 precincts in Indiana give Harrison 125,701, Cleveland 117,060. The same precincts in '84 gave Blaine 114,282, Cleveland 111,389.

800 precincts in Indiana give Harrison 128,140, Cleveland 120,719. The same precincts in '84 gave Blaine 116,534, Cleveland 114,554.

86 out of 90 precincts in this, (Marion) county, give Harrison 16,051, Cleveland 16,228; the remaining four precincts are Democratic, and Cleveland's plurality will be about 300. Blaine carried Marion county by a plurality of 126.

Full returns from 27 counties out of 92 show net Republican gains of 2,355. The Evening News says: The Republican Committee claims to have returns from 30 counties, either official or verified, showing that Harrison would carry the State by 5,000 plurality. Governor Gray, for the Democrats claims the State by 3,000 to 6,000.

840 precincts in Indiana give Harrison 132,547, Cleveland 125,813. The same precincts in 1884 gave Blaine 120,367, Cleveland 119,910; a net Republican gain of 3,772.

860 precincts of Indiana give Harrison 136,203, Cleveland 128,648. The same precincts in 1884 gave Blaine 123,744, Cleveland 122,711.

The following telegram was received to-night by General Harrison:

General Benj. Harrison:

Cordial congratulations. New York is supremely happy. The Republicans are jubilant and the Democrats shedding tears. [Signed] CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW.

880 precincts in Indiana give Harrison 139,002, Cleveland 131,942. The same precincts in 1884 gave Blaine 126,292, Cleveland 125,623.

890 precincts in Indiana give Harrison 140,627, Cleveland 133,468; the same precincts in 1884 gave Blaine 127,709, Cleveland 127,020.

The Indianapolis Journal has returns from 80 counties, showing gains for Harrison of 7,875 and Cleveland 856, and 3,500 majority on the National and State Republican ticket. The Democrats gain a congressman in the First, Eleventh and Twelfth Districts, and elect a majority in both branches of the Legislature.

900 precincts of Indiana give Harrison 143,164, Cleveland 135,185. The same precincts in 1884 gave Blaine 129,848, Cleveland 128,589.

"PROTECTING THE RETURNS."

"Yes, Such Protection as Vultures Give to Lambs."

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7.—Attorney-General Michener, on behalf of the Republican Committee, this afternoon telegraphed to New York inquiring in regard to the correctness of the report accredited to Senator Gorman, alleging the discovery of errors in the returns from Kings county, which when rectified will give New York State to the Democrats. Col. Dudley at 4 P. M. sent the following to General Harrison direct:

There is positively nothing in it. Our people are guarding the returns from Kings county and other precincts and counties, with absolute vigilance. Fraud is barely possible, but will not be permitted if the most perfect espionage by honest, brave men can prevent it. The State is now ours. The latest returns are sure to give you 15,000. If there is any change it will be more.

MORE OF THE SAME KIND.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Republican National Committee makes the following statement:

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS, November 7th.

In the view of the claim promulgated by the Democratic National Committeee that they have carried the State of New York for Cleveland, and that they are sending telegrams to their local committees all over the State to that effect, the Republican National Committee have sent out to the Chairman of each Republican County Committee of the State the following telegram: Although full returns from every county in the State show that New York is safely for Harrison by upwards of 15,000 plurality, the Democrats are telegraphing their County Chairmen, claiming the State and urging them to pay attention to returns. See to it that the returns are thoroughly guarded until officially canvassed. Prevent frauds at all hazards. In the case of necessity employ counsel. Notify us of any tampering with returns. Communicate with your town committees at once, if necessary, by special messenger.

[Signed] M. S. QUAY.
I. S. FASSETT.

CALIFORNIA.

The Canvass Still Incomplete—The State Claimed by Both Parties.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—It is expected that the canvass of the vote of the city of San Francisco will be completed by to-morrow afternoon. The Republican State Committee estimates that the Democratic plurality in the city will be about five thousand, but contend that outside counties will furnish a Republican plurality of fourteen thousand and that the Republican National ticket will be elected by nine thousand plurality. The Prohibition vote as far as canvassed falls below that of 1884. M. H. De Young, Chairman of the Sub-Committee telegraphed to Chairman Quay to-night, that all the Pacific Coast States had gone for Harrison, and California particularly by a rising vote of 8,000. The estimate of the Democratic State Committee does not vary from the one made earlier in the day, of a probable Democratic plurality of 2,000 to 3,000 in the State.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—17,000 votes had been canvassed in the city of San Francisco up to 2 P. M. out of the 54,000 cast. The vote, as far as canvassed up to that hour, gives Harrison 8,292; Cleveland 8,750.

Napa county returns complete give Harrison 1,752; Cleveland 1,483. In 1884 it gave Blaine 1,595; Cleveland 1,258.

Sacramento county complete, except one precinct, gives Harrison 4 620; Cleveland 3,357. In 1884 it gave Blaine 4,369; Cleveland 2,664.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—Complete election returns have been received from five counties in the State as follows: Contra Costa county—Harrison 1,518, Cleveland 1,166, Fisk 47, Curtis 11. Marion county—Harrison 926, Cleveland 846, Fisk 9, Curtis 1. Napa—Harrison 1,752, Cleveland 1,483, Fisk 36, Curtis 7. Sacramento—Harrison 4,620, Cleveland 3,357, Fisk 74, Curtis 82. San Benito county—Harrison 668, Cleveland 798, Fisk 89. San Joaquin—Harrison 2,848, Cleveland 2,838, Fisk 285, Curtis 40.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—22,704 votes counted in this city, out of a total of 55,370, give Harrison 10,915, Cleveland 11,789.

Ohio.

COLUMBUS, November 7.—Interest in the election news continues. Judge Thurman had nothing to say to correspondents this evening when asked for an opinion. The State Committee are still receiving returns from the State and figuring up gains and losses. The Republicans are claiming a plurality of from 25,000 to 30,000 and place their estimate on more or less complete returns from about half the counties in the State. On the other hand the Democratic Committee says complete or conservative estimates on the returns from 22 out of 88 counties give evidence of a Democratic gain of a little over 9,000, and if this erratic gain continues, which they scarcely dare hope, they will carry the State. At any rate they say there is no doubt they have cut down the Republican plurality to small figures. For Congress the Democrats say their losses balance their gains, and there is as yet no certainty that they have not made a net gain. On the other hand the Republicans claim a net gain of one, having lost in the tenth and gained in the seventh and twenty-first.

CINCINNATI, November 7.—All the counties, unofficial, except six, show a plurality for Harrison of 20,331. The six counties not reported gave Foraker, Republican, for Governor, in 1887, a plurality of 436.

Colorado.

DENVER, November 7.—Excitement in the city last night and to-day over the election returns was intense. Each bulletin was greeted with yells by the Republicans, who are confident of the success of the National ticket. The Democrats, while acknowledging that their chances are very doubtful, have not entirely given up all hopes of carrying New York. Returns in the Colorado election, both the State and Arrapahoe county (Denver), are unusually slow in coming in. Up to this hour, 7:30 P. M., only partial returns have been received. These indicate the election of the Republican ticket by a majority ranging from 8,000 to 12,000. The next General Assembly will probably be as follows: Senate, 6 Democrats, 19 Republicans; House, 10 Democrats, 39 Republicans. Partial returns from twenty-three counties give Cleveland 5,044, Harrison 7,664. Congressman, Townsend, Rep., 7,302; Macon, Dem., 4,749. Governor, Cooper, Rep., 6,946; Patterson, Dem., 5,116. Complete returns from 25 precincts in the city and county out of 73, give the following vote: Harrison 4,765, Cleveland 3,527, Townsend 4,691, Macon 3,598, Cooper 4,370, Patterson 3,589.

Illinois.

CHICAGO, November 7.—This city complete and the rest of Cook county, except two small townships which it is not thought will materially change the result, give Cleveland 81,120, Harrison 80,263, a plurality for Cleveland of 857. The county complete in 1884 gave Blaine 69,251, Cleveland 60,609, a plurality for Blaine of 8,842. As there has been no doubt that the State outside of Cook county went heavily for Harrison, though possibly by a somewhat less plurality than for Blaine in 1884, there would now appear to be absolutely no question, notwithstanding the great gain for Cleveland in Cook county, that the State is safe for Harrison.

The vote of 84 counties in Illinois, including Cook, shows majorities for Harrison of 38,943, Cleveland 19,373. The remaining 18 counties in 1884 gave Blaine 5,884, and Cleveland 6,542. Assuming that these 18 counties, not yet fully reported, gave the same result as 1884, the State will now give a plurality for Harrison of 18,912. It is safe to say therefore that Harrison's plurality will be about 19,000.

Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, November 7.—The Democratic State Committee has complete and incomplete returns from about 50 of the 114 counties in this State, which indicate that Cleveland will have a plurality of 30,000 in the State, and Francis, Dem., for Governor, will have a plurality of 14,000. These returns embrace the vote of St. Louis, Kansas City and all the other large cities in the State. Returns from fifty-nine towns and precincts outside of St. Louis and Kansas City, one county and two wards of Moberly, give Cleveland 15,014, Harrison 11,093; Francis, Dem., for Governor, 14,526, and Kimball, Rep., for Governor, 12,002. Kimball seems to be running well with Francis in the State, and this evening the Republican State Committee is claiming his election by a safe plurality.

Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb., November 7.—The latest estimates from returns already received by the State Journal give Nebraska to Harrison by between 30,000 and 35,000. For Governor, Thayer, Republican, will have 25,000 majority.

OMAHA, November 7.—Only fragmentary reports from the interior of the State have been received; not more than half a dozen counties have sent returns even for a basis of an estimate. The canvass at Omaha and Lincoln and several other large towns has not yet been completed. The State is safe for 25,000 Republican majority, except on Governer and Attorney-General. The First Congressional District is close, but it is generally conceded that Connell, Republican, is elected.

New Jersey.

TRENTON, November 7.—The State Legislature will stand thus: Democrats 13, Republicans 27; in doubt, 2; Democratic majority on joint ballot, not including the doubtful districts, 5.

The Congressional delegation of New Jersey is as follows: First district, C. R. Bergen, Rep.; Second district, James Buchanan, Rep.; Third district, J. Geisenheimer, Dem.; Fourth district, P. Fowler, Dem.; Fifth district, C. D. Beckwith, Rep.; Sixth district, Herman Lehlbach, Rep.; Seventh district, William McAdoo, Dem.

Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., November 7.—The entire State has gone Democratic by an increased majority. The Congressional delegation remains unchanged.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., November 7.—With nearly complete returns from this, the Third Congressional District, the Republicans confidently believe Evans, Rep., is elect to Congress by 300 or 400 majority. The Democrats, however, do not admit Bates' defeat. The excitement is intense; business is virtually suspended.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., November 7.—R. Clay Evans, Republican, defeats Creed F. Bates, Democrat, for Congress from the third Congressional district of Tennessee. Evans' majority is 87. This is the first Republican Congressman ever elected from the district.

West Virginia.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., November 7.—Notwithstanding the news of the election is not satisfactory to Democrats, they are offering bets of two to one on Cleveland with no takers. The results in this State will be Democratic on the State ticket, but the Legislature is believed to be extremely close, if not Republican.

WHEELING, W. Va., November 7.—Kinson, Republican, is elected over Pendleton, Democrat, for Congress, in the First District by 600 majority.

South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C., November 7.—Returns indicate the election of every Democratic candidate for Congress. The Democrats carry the State by about 35,000 majority.

The most serious opposition to the Democrats for Congressman was in the Seventh District. Elliott, Dem., is elected by about 2,000.

Michigan.

DETROIT, Mich., November 7.—Sufficient returns have been received from all the Congressional districts in Michigan, with one exception, to insure the election of eight Republicans and two Democrats, a Republican gain of two. The result in the Tenth (Fisher's) District is in doubt, and may require an official count to decide. Timothy Forris is defeated.

Kansas.

ST. LOUIS, November 7.—In Kansas 214 townships and precincts give Harrison 32,389, Cleveland 16,257, Humphrey 31,791, Martin 17,435.

TOPEKA, November 7.—Returns have been received from every county in Kansas. The estimate by Chairman Booth, from reports received, gives Harrison 70,000 majority over Cleveland and 65,000 for the entire Republican State ticket. The Legislature is almost solidly Republican.

Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, November 7.—Returns from every county in the State show a plurality for Harrison of 72,948, a Democratic gain of 8,071, as compared with the votes for President in '84.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., November 7.—Florida gives the Cleveland electors and Democratic State ticket a majority of something less than 5,000.

New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., November 7.—Returns from all but twenty-four towns and wards in the State give Harrison 43,169, Cleveland 40,421, Fisk 1,552. The Republicans will have thirty-three majority on joint ballot in the Legislature, being the same as in 1886.

Massachusetts.

BOSTON, November 7.—All but two towns in the State have been heard from and give Harrison 183,447, Cleveland 158,190, Fisk 8,641. The same towns in 1884 gave Blaine 145,613, Cleveland 122,254, Butler 24,376, St. John 9,916.

Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, November 7.—The latest returns show that the Democrats have carried the first nine Congressional districts and have much the best prospects in the tenth. The eleventh has re-elected Finley, Republican. Cleveland's majority is nearly 40,000.

Minnesota.

CHICAGO, November 7.—A Western Union bulletin says: Nothing new to report from Minnesota. Merriam's majority is about 7,000. Four Republican Congressmen have been elected. The first district is still in doubt.

Delaware.

WILMINGTON, Del., November 5.—The Every Evening Bulletin says: Kent county has gone Democratic and the Legislative ticket is elected by 169 plurality. This insures the election of a Democratic Senator to succeed Saulsbury.

Connecticut.

HARTFORD, Conn., November 7.—Miles', Republican, election in the Fourth Congressional district is deemed certain. Connecticut will then gain two Republican Congressmen.

The Result in San Diego.

SAN DIEGO, November 7.—Returns from nearly the entire county give Harrison a majority of 900 to 1,000 in the county, The Republicans elect the entire county ticket by reduced majorities, with the exception of Russell for Sheriff, which is still in doubt. The city is Republican by 600 majority.

EDITORIAL OPINIONS.

Figures and Comments of Leading Journals.

NEW YORK, November 8.—The Tribune says: Revised returns of the vote for President with careful estimates, where authentic figures are lacking, gives Harrison 11,000 plurality in this State. Returns and estimates from every county computed on fully good basis with the Tribune's table of pluralities for President, show that Hill has a net plurality of 3,500.

A NATIONAL CALAMITY.

AUGUSTA, Me., November 7.—The Chroniele to-morrow, editorially, will say of the Democratic defeat: The President's message, while it was honest and brave, caused his defeat. We regard the defeat of President Cleveland as a national calamity. This defeat does not mean the dissolution of the Democratic party. Four years from last Tuesday our party will march to victory under the leadership of David B. Hill or some other Democrat who is the nominee for President.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Sun of this morning will say that Harrison has 11,762 plurality in New York State, and that Hill has 18,652. It says the next House of Representatives will be so evenly divided between the parties that an official count will be necessary to decide which is in the majority. Its figures show that Indiana gives Harrison a plurality of 20,000. In Connecticut the vote is Democratic by 494.

A RACE RIOT.

A Bloody Fight Between Whites and Negroes at Norfolk, Va.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—A special to the Post from Norfolk, Va., says: A riot occurred in Portsmouth about 8 o'clock to-night between whites and blacks. Four hundred Negroes marched down High street, the principal thoroughfare in the city, singing, "Hang Grover Cleveland on a sour apple tree." At the corner of Dinwiddy street a large party of white men were congregated and a white boy and a Negro had a scuffle. The Negroes came to the rescue of their comrade and were charged by the whites. Hardly had the fight commenced before shots were fired, then the wildest confusion prevailed, and after about forty shots had been fired, the Negroes retreated. The whites then discovered three of their men were wounded. Samuel Oust was shot in the legs, James Mahoney in the abdomen, and John Reiger in the eye. The two latter are probably fatally wounded. Immediately after the riot and after the Negroes had retreated the whites began arming themselves. Everybody is now armed. Mayor Baird has called out the Old Dominion Guards, and 100 special policemen have been sworn in. The excitement is intense and the negroes are reported as forming just outside the city. Another outbreak is feared. A detachment of the guards will be sent to disperse the mob of Negroes.

THAT BLUE BOOK.

It Improves Cleveland and Bayard's Position.

LONDON, November 7.—The Daily News says: The blue book on the Sackville affair considerably improves the position of President Cleveland and Secretary Bayard. Lord Salisbury's error lay in not perceiving that the recall of Sackville involved no personal discredit.

The Standard considers that the Blue Book acquits the Foreign Office, and shows that Lord Salisbury acted with dignity and discretion, and removes the only extenuation possible to plead for Cleveland.

The Times says: The blue book confirms our previous opinion. It emphasizes Lord Sackville's indiscretion.

The Stanfords Return.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—Senator Stanford and wife arrived to-day from New York on their return from their European tour.

Baseball.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—Oaklands 12, All-Americas 2.

THE VERY LATEST.

Mr. Cleveland Concedes He is Defeated.

JEWETT GIVES UP INDIANA.

That Settles the Affair for Good and All, so far as Present Guessing Goes.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

WASHINGTON, November 7.—The Post to-morrow will say: The President takes the result calmly and philosophically. He talked quite freely, also, about the returns and increased Republican vote, but expressed not the slightest regret in the world at any action he had taken during his administration. He is willing to admit that his position on the tariff and the decided stand he took in favor of revenue reduction may have lost him a good many votes, but still maintains if it were to do over again he would follow the dictates of his convictions.

The President received no telegrams from the National Democratic Committee until late to-night. From what he had heard, however, he concedes that he is defeated. He attributes his defeat to no one in particular, and says that Hill and Tammany Hall treated him with perfect fairness and he has no fault to find at all.

COMPLACENT SATISFACTION.

General Harrison Figuring out His Election.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., November 7.—General Harrison spent the evening in his library receiving the election bulletins over a private wire. During the afternoon a number of friends and neighbors dropped in to congratulate him. The rainy weather has been a great safeguard to the General in so far as escaping midnight and noisy demonstration around his residence. He was in a very cheerful frame of mind to-night, reading the bulletins complacently and explaining from time to time to the little group the difference and importance of this or that statement or bulletin. Among his callers were Judge Wm. A. Woods and wife and Mr. C. W. Fairbanks. John S. Harrison, of Kansas City, the General's only brother, arrived this morning and was among his guests. All the members of the family were in and out the library during the evening, as were Mrs. Harrison's guests, Mrs. Brown, of West Virginia and Miss Strickle of Dayton, Ohio. About 11 o'clock the ladies retired and it was not a great while thereafter before the General did likewise, leaving his son and Mr. McKee to sit up for late returns. Some 950 precincts in Indiana had been heard from up to that time, and being one-half the State the General figured a few moments on this bulletin and then stated with some degree of satisfaction that the average net gain of about 63⅓ votes to the precinct was being maintained. At this rate General Harrison's plurality will be in the vicinity of 6,000.

Jewett Gives Up Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7.—At 10:30 this evening the Democratic Committee rooms were deserted. In the Chairman's private room Mr. Jewett and three or four assistants were engaged figuring on the results on the Legislative and Congressional tickets. Mr. Sheerin had gone home. Chairman Jewett greeted the Associated Press reporter pleasantly and in answer to the suggestions that he might have something to say in regard to the political situation in the State said: The indications are that the Republican electors have carried the State. The official count may show differently. The probability is that we have elected a part of our State ticket. We have elected ten Congressmen, a gain of four. We have a certain majority in the State Senate of six, and in the Lower House of twenty, giving us control in joint ballot. I don't care to say anything about the methods by which this was accomplished.

LONDON COMMENT.

The Idea Ridiculed that the Democracy Had British Backing.

LONDON, November 7.—The Times says: Though we believe President Cleveland's internal policy and his administration are more remarkable for capacity and uprightness than anything to which the Republicans can point in recent years, we cannot profess regret at an event which may be regarded as an appropriate penalty for his discreditable subservience to the meanness of American politics, and his culpable neglect of the decencies of international intercourse. It is not improbable that President Cleveland's hasty change of front in the Fisheries affairs, and Secretary Bayard's treatment of Lord Sackville, alienated, or at least cooled the friends of purity, reform and national dignity, whom the corrupt demagogic rule of the Republicans had driven to the opposite camp. In respect to his Fisheries policy there is no reason why Mr. Harrison, if he had the courage to shake off the domination of the machine, may not emulate, and even surpass President Cleveland. We are sincerely sorry that the change of Government may involve the retirement of Minister Phelps, who has performed his duties with marked ability and adroitness and has won esteem and friendship.

NO BRITISH GOLD USED.

The Standard says: Never was there a more absurd fiction than that British gold was lavished to secure the defeat of Mr. Blaine and his nomination, or that Englishmen would be mortified at the overthrow of President Cleveland. Of all persons in the world that we have the least reason to be grateful to, is President Cleveland. Cleveland is one of those who would play false, and yet would rightly win. His half-hearted, paltry demagogism and statesmanship simultaneously caused him to lose reputation abroad, as well as to forfeit the confidence of the great Democratic party of America, who could sweep the Irish from the ballot boxes if they pleased. At the same time we have little cause to rejoice over the triumph of the Republicans. The possible effect of of Harrison's success on the foreign relations of America, cannot be regarded as favorable. We have no reason to regret or rejoice.

English's Confidence.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The following telegram was received at Democratic headquarters to-night:

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.

Hon. Calvin S. Brice:

We have carried this State for Cleveland and Thurman by a safe majority.

(Signed) WM. D. ENGLISH.

A Card from Lord Sackville-West

White House, November 6, 1888.

To the American Public:

Secretary Bayard and the American Cabinet having demanded my immediate recall for my indiscretion in being caught in a snare especially prepared for me by my rival party, I have decided to take immediate leave of this country. In order to win the goodwill of all Americans, irrespective of party, and to show my keen appreciation for the Protection of American Industries, I have telegraphed my agents in Los Angeles to go at once to the White House Clothing Company, Spring and Franklin streets, World Beaters for Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, etc., and purchase largely of the well-selected stock for the personal use of myself and many friends. If this is not Americanism, What is?

Yours truly,
Lord Sackville-West.

Benton's Hair Grower.

All who are BALD, all who are becoming BALD, all who do not want to be BALD, all who are troubled with DANDRUFF or ITCHING of the scalp, should use Benton's Hair Grower. EIGHTY PER CENT. of those using it have grown hair. It never fails to stop the hair from falling. Through sickness and fevers the hair sometimes falls off in a short time, and though the person may have remained bald for years, if you use Benton's Hair Grower according to directions you are sure of a growth of hair. In hundreds of cases we have procured a good growth of hair on those who have been ald and glazed for years. We have fully substantiated the following facts:

We grow hair in every case, no matter how long bald.

Unlike other preparations, it contains no sugar of lead, or vegetable or mineral poisons.

It is a specific for falling hair, dandruff and itching of the scalp.

The Hair Grower is a hair food, and its composition is almost exactly like the oil which supplies the hair with its vitality.

If your druggists have not got it, we will send it prepaid on receipt of price, $1.00.

For sale by C. H. Hance.

Delicate Mechanism Disordered and Righted.

The most delicate and intricate piece of mechanism in the human structure is the nerves. As the telegraphic wires transmit the electric force, so do these sensation, the focal point being the brain, where sensation centers. Mental anxiety weakens this mechanism, sudden shocks paralyze it, but dyspepsia is the most obdurate foe. This foe is utterly defeated by the irresistab e tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and the cessation of disorder in the stomach is reflected in brain and nerves by restored tranquility, and tranquility of the nerves implies, in this instance, renewed vigor. A distinguished medical authority says, "The victim of nervous disquietude who finds chloral at night and bromides by day necessities, should know that a cure must be sought among agencies which strengthen the nerves," and assuredly Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has proved to be the best of these. Malarial complaints, constipation, billiousness, inactivity of the kidneys and rheumatism often involve nervous troubles by sympathy, and are all eradicated by the Bitters.

Cure For Piles.

Itching piles are known by moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching after getting warm. SORE THROAT.

Inflammatory action of any kind in the nose speedily extends itself to the throat. From the throat each breath we draw carries the irritation onward and downward through the bronchial tubes; as these are involved the supply of air to the lungs becomes gradually diminished, tubercules may form and bronchitis end in consumption. "Sore throat" is the popular term used in speaking of throat diseases, differing widely from each other in their nature and treatment.

The throat comprises the whole space from the posterior nares down to the entrance into the windpipe and gullet. The several parts liable to disease are the mucous membrane lining the throat, the mucous follicles or little glands, which in health, secrete the lubricating mucous, the uvula or pedulus part which hangs down from the curtain of the palate and the tonsils.

ACUTE OR SIMPLE SORE THROAT.

The most simple form of throat disease is inflammation of the mucous membrane, resulting from recent cold. It is most prevalent in cold or damp weather. The symptoms are a roughness in the throat, with a slight pain and swelling. The throat looks red and angry and the tongue is slightly coated with white fur. Within a few days small whitish spots, which look like ulcers, form on the back of the throat and about the root of the tongue. If the attack be mild, these aphthous points disappear at the end of three or four days, but when more severe they leave behind them superficial ulcers. When the acute inflammation is not entirely removed it is likely to degenerate into a chronic form, and gradually develop what is called granular disease, or it may end in an abscess of the tonsil glands, or cause chronic enlargement of the tonsils and elongation of the uvula.

CHRONIC SORE THROAT.

This like nearly all affections of the throat and nose, usually begins with a severe cold, and is almost always attended with a hoarseness. It is more frequently a mere extension of catarrh or sore throat than an original disease, the irritation escaping down and fixing itself upon the delicate organism of this part, and thence gradually journeying onward to the lungs. When it occurs as a consequence of catarrh or sore throat, the symptoms are comparat vely mild. There may be pain but it is more common to find only a sense of tickling which provokes cough. Many complain of a sensation as of "something sticking there," to get rid of which they keep up a rasping effort to clear the windpipe. The voice is always more or less affected, being rough in the early stage, but more feeble after the disease is fully established. There is often a slight tenderness over that prominence of the neck known as the "Apple of Adam" (Pomum Adam), a heat and a sense of tightness and frequently some slight difficulty in swallowing.

The causes which produce this form of disease are various. It arises in clergymen and public speakers and others from too violent use of the voice. The vocal cords become exhausted and lose their tone from straining and overuse. Dust and all irritating matters in the air are liable to be drawn into the windpipe and produce irritation. It is more often a mere sequel to sore throat, the inflammation extending down to the larnyx by reason of the continuity of mucous membrane.

But from whatever cause it arises it is always a serious malady. The chronic form threatens the complete destruction of the voice, and rarely ends until it has involved the lungs in disease. Every slight cold, every change in the weather, every flight of dust, feeds the irritation and increases the inveteracy of its hold.

On the other hand chronic laryngitis frequently occurs as a sequel of consumption, and is produced, or at least very much aggravated, by the irritation of the expectorated matter. Occurring as a consequence of tubercles, it is one of the most distressing complications and adds greatly to the patient's distress. In this form there is more or less ulceration of the vocal chords, beginning on the lower side and gradually extending upward. These ulcers often penetrate through the mucous and cellular membranes, involving the muscular tissue and not infrequently attack the ligaments and cartilages themselves.

When the laryngeal disease is secondary to that of the lungs, and dependent upon it, we can only hope to effect a cure by those means which will remove its cause, and these we have considered, and shall more fully consider, under the head of "Consumption."

In addition to inflammation, acute or chronic, the larynx is liable to abscesses, to warty growths and to polypi. Under the action of long continued irritation the vocal cords become thickened, rendering the voice husky and indistinct. And again, we may have complete loss of voice from palsy of the cords, constituting an affection known to the physicians by the term of "Aphonia." Unless the remedies are applied to the seat of the disease it is useless to try to effect a cure. It is for this reason that judicious inhalations are successful when all other means have been tried without avail.

TONSILITIS

Is an acute inflammation of the tonsils, which consists of a collection or mass of small mucous follicles or glands whose office is to secrete a portion of the fluid which keeps the throat moist. There are persons who suffer every winter, sometimes oftener, with an attack of acute inflammation of these glands. The trouble begins with a slight soreness and swelling, which gradually increases until the act of swallowing is attended with great suffering.

These glands are sometimes affected by a chronic inflammation, and are found enlarged and very much hardened. In such cases they secrete a thin, unhealthy, irritating fluid, which is spread over the throat, perpetuating the disease. In the throats of many young persons these glands are permanently so large as to render respiration exceedingly difficult. The defective breathing of children thus affected often occasions contraction of the chest, and lays the foundation for consumption. The eu-tachian tubes (the mouths of which are just above the palate) are often inflamed, and partial deafness is the result.

Many patients suffering from a throat disease are dyspeptic, and suffer from depression of spirits. So often does this symptom present itself that it may almost be regarded as one of the peculiar ties. Persons thus afflicted have usually the dark and dingy look of the face which denotes functional derangement of the liver. They are frequently emaciated, nervous, hypochrondriacal, irritable and often exhausted from other causes, in combination with this disease.

GRANULAR SORE THROAT

Is the most serious form of throat disease. It is so called because on looking into the throat granulations of various sizes are seen, studding the membrane and causing it to appear rough and uneven. Sometimes these granulations appear in patches, but generally they are regular and distinct. When allowed to progress the mucous follicles of the larynx soon become involved, and then we have added to the other symptoms a huskiness of the voice in speaking or reading aloud, with a frequent effort to clear the windpipe, by which a thick, sticky, bluish-colored mucous is forced off with considerable difficulty. The transition from a simple to a granular sore throat is very easy. The patient becomes conscious of vexatious titillation, producing a desire to clear the throat several times during the course of the day. He may not notice this himself, but it is, nevertheless, observed by his friends. Some months later this disposition is found to have increased, and to be attended with an occasional desire to swallow, the patient—to use his own words—feeling something sticking in his throat.

CONSULTATION FREE.

Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at my office for consultation and examination, but if impossible to do so, can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions Address

JUMPED ON HIS STOMACH.

One Laborer Kills Another on Election Day at San Fernando.

The little town of San Fernando celebrated election day by a murder. Wm. Stick, a laborer about 35 years of age, in the employ of the San Fernando railroad, got into some sort of a discussion with another laborer by the name of Lannigan. The latter works for the San Fernando Land and Water Company. They were both drunk and the discussion grew very hot before they were done with it. At last they separated and Stick went to his room at the Widow Glenn's lodging house. Lannigan continued to imbibe freely, and the more he drank the more the insults which Stick had heaped upon him rankled in his memory. At last he made up his mind to take revenge, and went to the widow Glenn's place and entered Stick's room. The latter lay on his bed sound asleep. As the story is told, Lannigan then seized him and pulled him to the floor; then as he lay prostrate he jumped upon his stomach and beat him and kicked him. When morning came Lannigan was arrested and charged with an assault. He was taken before Justice Holliday and received a fine of $20. This was supposed to be the end of the affair, but the Doctor who had been summoned to look into the injuries of Stick announced that the case was a serious one. At four o'clock yesterday afternoon the unfortunate man died. Lannigan was promptly arrested and lodged in jail to await examination. An inquest on the body of the murdered man will be held to-day.

ANTI-SALOON.

An Address by the Leaders of the Movement.

The time has again come for active work at the polls. A year ago the Citizens' Anti-Saloon movement in the city of Los Angeles, organized upon a non-partisan basis, polled nearly twelve hundred votes, showing a revolution in public sentiment which was a surprise to all. It is no presumption to say that the effect of that vote has been felt in the moral tone of the city ever since. Starting as a citizens' movement, irrespective of party, it has rigidly adhered to that basis. In August last the Executive Committee, to which the work for the year had been intrusted, issued a call for a mass convention at Long Beach in the same line of work. The call was to all political parties. They were all represented, and many hundreds of people were present. At that convention, after a discussion lasting through two days, it was voted to continue the work on the same line, only to broaden it so as to make it a movement not only against the saloon but also against the gambling house, the opium den and the brothel, and in favor of good, clean, efficient government. Such a platform was framed and adopted at that meeting, and upon that platform the movement stands to-day. Adhering to its original resolution to avoid party politics, it has remained, as it promised, out of the field in the national and State contest which is just past. Now, however, that the municipal contest is again before us and within a few weeks the battle is to be fought which shall decide whether good or evil shall rule in our city for the ensuing year, it is again in the field. And it earnestly asks political parties, as there are no political principles at stake in these local contests, to remain out of the field, and let us deal with this question of a pure city government in the manner in which it should be, solely as a local and home question. The Executive Committee of the citizens anti-saloon movement has done its work for the year. It now, as its closing official act, calls a mass meeting of all citizens who are in favor of driving from our midst the saloon, the gambling house, the opium den and the brothel, and who are in favor of security for our homes and of a clean city government.

The object of that meeting is to elect an Executive Committee for the ensuing campaign, and to provide for carrying on the work. Men who love your homes, mothers whose eyes know the bitterness of tears, the battle is upon us.

Los Angeles, November 7, 1888.

J. P. Widney, Eli Fay, Ulrich Knoch, Mrs. L. D. More, Mrs. Lucy Blanchard.

The meeting will be held at Childs' Opera House Hall, Saturday evening, November 10th, at 7:30 o'clock sharp.

To Wed.

The following persons were yesterday licensed to wed:

Alfred James and Mattie H. Dana, of Los Angeles.

John A. Snyder and Frances Haney, of Orange.

Thos. Elston and Elizabeth McDonald, of Los Angeles.

Frank E. Walsh and Bessie Bell, of Los Angeles.

Somuel Mouser and Emma Bohan, of Los Angeles.

J. H. Boney and Flora M. Fuller, of Los Angeles.

Steamer Departures.

The steamer Santa Rosa sailed North yesterday with the following passengers:

For San Francisco—G. F. Bailey, wife and child, Mrs. T. C. Nectival, Mrs. C. Hanson, Mrs. J. Ludbey, John McGee, C. C. Brown, S. Bubson, Miss Minnie Wesley, Mrs. W. B. C. Cook, Mrs. M. Bostwick, Robert McKenzie, Mrs. D. I. McKenzie, Edith McKenzie, Mrs. V. McKenzie, Mrs. L. A. Vurus, Mrs. L. Fiscus, P. Simann, J. W. Grant, A. Bloomfield, D. T. Maddux, C. M. Strobridge and wife, E. P. Wilbur and wife, C. B. Kasing, M. Brannon, R. B. Dickinsor, Mrs. J. D. Murra, and twenty in the steerage.

For San Luis Obispo—R. E. Allen, Mrs. E. Miles, and five in the steerage.

Coming West.

The excursion managers all report big crowds on their parties that left the East yesterday for this coast. The majority of the tourists will arrive during the coming week, though some of them will stop en route for a few days at points of interest in the interior of the continent. The Raymond party is traveling in two sections, one going north via the Northern Pacific and Yellowstone Park, and the other South over the Santa Fe.

Third Season at "The Raymond."

The Raymond, at East Pasadena, California, will reopen for the season November 15th. It is sufficient commendation of this popular winter resort to announce that Mr. C. H. Merrill, so long at the head of the Crawford House, White Mountains, and the only landlord The Raymond has ever had, is to continue as its manager.

Auction sale of livery stock. H. H. Matlock & Son will sell the entire contents of the West End Stable, corner of Temple and Belmont avenue, on Thursday, November 8th, commencing at 10 A. M. Twelve good horses, buggies, wagons, carts, harness, double and single, whips, robes, blankets, etc. Also one fire-proof safe, good as new. Owing to the failing health of the owner, and being unable to attend to his business in person, this property has to be sold to close the business. Take Temple street cars to the barn. Sale positive, no reserve. H. H. Matlock & Son, auctioneers; office 22 and 24 East Second street.

DRUNKENNESS

Or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by R. W. Ellis & Co. Druggists, 27 S. A CANDID CONFESSION.

For several years I suffered from Dyspepsia and Kidney Complaint, the latter being so severe at times that I could scarcely attend to my work. My appetite was poor and I was much emaciated. But through the free use of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla my appetite and digestion improved till my health was perfectly restored.

PUT ME ON THE LIST.

I suffered for years from catarrh. It destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. None of the remedies I took afforded me any relief, until I commenced using "the California Remedy," Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. I began taking it last spring and am now entirely free from this disgusting disease, and am again strong and healthy.

A CALIFORNIA DISCOVERY.

The parasites, of which we give cut below, discovered by us, are the direct cause of Catarrh and Consumption, also many other diseases.

Magnified 560 Times.

Imagine millions of these animalculæ in the nose, throat and lungs, as well as the minute eustachian tubes leading from the back part of the throat to the middle ear, and you will imagine the misery they can produce. Thousands are swallowed when the patient is asleep, causing kidney and liver trouble, headache, blood poison, general debility, etc. We have a specific for destroying them and expelling the poison from the blood. Use the CALIFORNIA POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE ELECTRIC COUCH AND CONSUMPTION CURE to take and the CALIFORNIA POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE ELECTRIC LINIMENT to apply, and if the stomach is bad, use the CALIFORNIA POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE ELECTRIC SYSTEM BUILDER it builds up the system and purifies the poisoned blood. They are manufactured from roots, herbs and flowers that grow in California, and are safe for children. They never fail. The Cough Cure is excellent for Coughs, Colds, Croup, &c., no child will ever die with croup when this is used. Our Liniment kills pain instantly. See our Trade Mark on every wrapper. Sold by all druggists.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT.

Of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles.

Lucy A. Bartram, plaintiff, vs. John W. Bartram, defendant.

Action brought in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles, and the complaint filed in said county of Los Angeles in the office of the Clerk of said Superior Court.

The people of the State of California send greeting to John W. Bartram, defendant.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff, in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within the county, or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, and for custody of the minor children issue of said marriage, and for costs of suit. Reference is had to complaint for particulars.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles this 3d day of September, 1888.
